SUBJECT: Waive Ordinance 222 for two Mother's Day events to be held at Tito Park

ISSUE: Shall the Board waive Ordinance 222 for two Mother's Day events at Tito Park on May 6th and May 7th?

GENERAL MANAGER RECOMMENDATION:

Waive Ordinance 222 for two Mother's Day events to be held at Tito park on May 6th and May 7th.

FISCAL IMPACT:

NONE

DISCUSSION:

Proyecto Heber has submitted a request to hold a Mother's day event including a Farmer's market on Friday May 6th at Tito Park. They have requested a waiver of Ordinance 222 to allow for the consumption and sale of alcohol at Tito Park.

Watsupwu Productions have submitted a request to hold a Free Mother's Day and Community Event on Saturday, May 7th at Tito Park. They have requested a waiver of Ordinance 222 to allow for the consumption and sale of alcohol at Tito Park.

HPUD has adopted Ordinance 222 that prohibits the sale and consumption of alcohol in Tito Huerta Park. In order for these two events to have alcohol sold and consumed during, the HPUD Board must waive Ordinance 222 for a one-day event to be held on Saturday, January 29, 2022.

Both promoters must complete all the necessary documents to secure a permit from the Bureau of Alcohol Beverage Control.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that HPUD Board waive Ordinance 222 to allow the sale of alcohol on during these two community events.

ALTERNATIVES:

- 1) Do not waive Ordinance 222 to allow to sale of alcohol on at one or both of these events.
- 2) Provide alternative direction from staff.

Respectfully Submitted,
Laura Fischer, General Manager
